Creation

Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, after Our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them. Genesis 1:26-27

And the Lord was sorry He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him to His heart. Genesis 6:6

For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with great mercy, I will bring you back. Isaiah 54:7

"Walter Brueggemann explains, "God resolves that he will stay with, endure, and sustain his world, notwithstanding the sorry state of humankind... It is now clear that such a commitment on God's part is costly. The God-world relation is not simply that of strong God and needy world. Now it is a tortured relation between a grieved God and a resistant world... This is a key insight of the gospel against every notion that God stands outside of the hurt as a judge."

Sin _____ those relationships.

In the story of the flood, God allows us to have

But sin doesn't get the last word. God can't give up.
