

October 23, 2016 Remember - Deuteronomy 8:11-20

He established a law for Jacob and set up Instruction for Israel, ordering our ancestors to teach them to their children. This is so the next generation and children not yet born will know these things, and so they can rise up and tell their children to put their hope in God—never forgetting God’s deeds, but keeping God’s commandments—and so that they won’t become like their ancestors: a rebellious, stubborn generation, a generation whose heart wasn’t set firm and whose spirit wasn’t faithful to God.

Psalm 78:5-8

Be careful not to forget the Lord your God so that you fail to obey his commands, laws, and rules that I am giving to you today. When you eat all you want and build nice houses and live in them, when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase, when you have more of everything, then your heart will become proud. You will forget the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. He led you through the large and terrible desert that was dry and had no water, and that had poisonous snakes and stinging insects. He gave you water from a solid rock and manna to eat in the desert. Manna was something your ancestors had never seen. He did this to take away your pride and to test you, so things would go well for you in the end. You might say to yourself, “I am rich because of my own power and strength,” but remember the Lord your God! It is he who gives you the power to become rich, keeping the agreement he promised to your ancestors, as it is today. If you ever forget the Lord your God and follow other gods and worship them and bow down to them, I warn you today that you will be destroyed. Just as the Lord destroyed the other nations for you, you can be destroyed if you do not obey the Lord your God. Deuteronomy 8:11-20

Next week: The STORY series continues. Joshua

October 23, 2016 Remember - Deuteronomy 8:11-20

He established a law for Jacob and set up Instruction for Israel, ordering our ancestors to teach them to their children. This is so the next generation and children not yet born will know these things, and so they can rise up and tell their children to put their hope in God—never forgetting God’s deeds, but keeping God’s commandments—and so that they won’t become like their ancestors: a rebellious, stubborn generation, a generation whose heart wasn’t set firm and whose spirit wasn’t faithful to God.

Psalm 78:5-8

Be careful not to forget the Lord your God so that you fail to obey his commands, laws, and rules that I am giving to you today. When you eat all you want and build nice houses and live in them, when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase, when you have more of everything, then your heart will become proud. You will forget the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, where you were slaves. He led you through the large and terrible desert that was dry and had no water, and that had poisonous snakes and stinging insects. He gave you water from a solid rock and manna to eat in the desert. Manna was something your ancestors had never seen. He did this to take away your pride and to test you, so things would go well for you in the end. You might say to yourself, “I am rich because of my own power and strength,” but remember the Lord your God! It is he who gives you the power to become rich, keeping the agreement he promised to your ancestors, as it is today. If you ever forget the Lord your God and follow other gods and worship them and bow down to them, I warn you today that you will be destroyed. Just as the Lord destroyed the other nations for you, you can be destroyed if you do not obey the Lord your God. Deuteronomy 8:11-20

Next week: The STORY series continues. Joshua

THE STORY

FINDING YOUR STORY IN GOD'S STORY

We are invited into the STORY of God.

Out of our struggles, comes a new way to live.

We grow and invite our children and others along.

We must remember who and where we once were.

Israel only had a future if God saved them

Not saved to be enslaved to God. We're His children.

Don't become the people from which we were saved.

Never forget who are our people.

HOW DO WE BECOME REMEMBERERS?

- 1) Tell and embody the STORY
- 2) Memorial stones
- 3) Intentional Association

THE STORY

FINDING YOUR STORY IN GOD'S STORY

We are invited into the STORY of God.

Out of our struggles, comes a new way to live.

We grow and invite our children and others along.

We must remember who and where we once were.

Israel only had a future if God saved them

Not saved to be enslaved to God. We're His children.

Don't become the people from which we were saved.

Never forget who are our people.

HOW DO WE BECOME REMEMBERERS?

- 1) Tell and embody the STORY
- 2) Memorial stones
- 3) Intentional Association