

The STORY - Week Eight

November 6, 2016 Steadfast Courage - Judges

“Fear the LORD and serve Him wholeheartedly. Put away the idols your ancestors worshiped when they lived beyond the Euphrates River and in Egypt. Serve the LORD alone. Destroy the idols among you, and turn your hearts to The LORD, the God of Israel.” Joshua 24:14, 23

The Israelites did evil in the LORD’s sight and served the images of Baal. They abandoned the LORD, the God of their ancestors, Who brought them out of Egypt. They went after other gods, worshiping the gods of the people around them. Judges 2:11-12

After Ehud, Shamgar so of Anath rescued Israel. He once killed 600 Philistines with an ox goad.” Judges 3:31

“What is a feeble instrument in the hands of one man is a mighty instrument in the hands of another, simply because the spirit of that other burns with holy determination to accomplish the work that has to be done.” Joseph Parker, 19th century theologian

“The world is looking for better methods, but God is looking for better women and men who understand the basics: the power of the Holy Spirit, wise strategy, and steadfast courage.”
(paraphrase of E.M. Bounds’ quote)

“Give whatever tools you have to the Lord, stand your ground courageously, and trust God to use what’s in your hand to accomplish great things for His glory.” Charles Spurgeon

THE STORY

FINDING YOUR STORY IN GOD'S STORY

Joshua advised Israel to turn their hearts to God.

The book of Judges is discouraging.

God's people didn't keep their covenant with God.

Their hearts followed idols.

Shamgar used what he had, and rescued Israel.

Shamgar trusted God and that was enough.

Israel cried out to God for relief from their trouble.

Reformation temporarily changes outward conduct.

Revival forever alters the depths of a person's heart.

What distracts you from God?

As God reveals idols in your heart, destroy them.

Trust God and be steadfast and courageous!
