Isaya 49:13-19

Wengine wanasema maombi imeundwa ili mabadiliko katika maisha yetu, si Mungu, na kwamba ni hatari sana nusu-ukweli. Maombi ni iliyoundwa na mabadiliko ya Mungu, lakini sala ni sehemu ya uhusiano, na huwezi kutabiri kabla ya muda jinsi mwingiliano katika uhusiano wa mapenzi kazi nje. Hezekiah imeonekana maombi unaweza kubadilisha Mungu - John Goldingay (2011).

Wiki ijayo: kuanguka kwa utawala wa Yuda.

January 29, 2017 Only One King—Israel Falls

King Hezekiah went to God’s prophet Isaiah and asked him to seek the Lord on behalf of Judah. Isaiah spoke the encouraging Word of the Lord to Hezekiah: *Heavens, raise the roof! Earth, wake the dead! Mountains, send up cheers! God has comforted His people. He has tenderly nursed His beaten-up, beaten-down people. But Zion said, “I don’t get it. God has left me. My Master has forgotten I even exist.” “Can a mother forget the infant at her breast, walk away from the baby she bore? Even if mothers forget, I’d never forget you—never. Look, I’ve written your names on the backs of My hands. The walls you’re rebuilding are never out of My sight. Your builders are faster than your wreckers. The demolition crews are gone for good. Look up, look around, look well! See them gathering, coming to you? As sure as I Am the living God”—God’s Decree—“you’re going to put them on like so much jewelry, you’re going to use them to dress up like a bride. “And your ruined land? Your devastated, decimated land? Filled with more people than you know what to do with! And your barbarian enemies, a fading memory. Isaiah 49:13-19

Some say prayer is designed to change us, not God, and that’s a very dangerous half-truth. Prayer is designed to change God, but prayer is part of a relationship, and you cant predict ahead of time how the interactions in a relationship will work out. Hezekiah proved prayer can change God - John Goldingay (2011).
