It's In Our D.N.A.

When I came to you, brothers and sisters, I didn't come preaching God's secrets to you like I was an expert in speech or wisdom. I made up my mind not to think about anything while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and to preach Him as crucified. I stood in front of you with weakness, fear, and a lot of shaking. My message and my preaching weren't presented with convincing wise words but with a demonstration of the Spirit and of power. I did this so your faith might not depend on the wisdom of people but on the power of God. 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Michael Frost, author of “Surprise the World”, challenges his readers to take the five new habits of missional people—Blessing, Eating, Listening, Learning and Being Sent—a significant step further. Become part of a group of Christ-followers who seek to disciple and nurture one another as they hold each other accountable to the Christian life.

By placing proper emphasis on the Cross and crucifixion, Paul ensured that nobody could mistake this message for a kind of crowd-pleasing rhetorical stunt, convincing at the time but making no lasting impression. Crucifixion was regarded in the ancient world as so horrible, so revolting, so degrading, that you didn't mention it in polite society. No self-respecting sophist or rhetorician would dream of doing it. But Paul believed, and the new-found faith and life of the Corinthian Christians bore this out, that this was the clue to the mystery of life (Wright, 2004).

It's In Our D.N.A.

D. N. A. could stand for many things.

Definitely — Noticeable — Alteration

Decidedly — New — Approach

Daring — Noble — Adjustment

Do — Not — Atrophy

Michael Frost chose Disciple — Nurture — Accountability

Are you ready to commit to the 5 habits we've studied?

If yes, how do you plan to make them HABITS?

If not, what habits provide shape to your response to Jesus' words in Matthew 28:19-20?

Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to obey everything I've commanded you. I Myself will be with you every day until the end of this present age.

---

I'm not asking you to do something distrustful or unpleasant. Blessing people is personally satisfying. Eating with others is fun. Listening to the Spirit and learning Jesus is spiritually enriching. Journaling the ways you alert others to the reign of God is encouraging (Frost, 2016).
