- To be financially accountable, we learn diligence in money matters.
- To be spiritually accountable, we learn to be diligent in our relationships—with God and people.

KOSHER MEAT

Who are you to judge someone else's servants?

They stand or fall before their own Lord (and they will stand, because the Lord has the power to make them stand).

-Romans 14:4

ἐξουθενέω

exoutheneō / despise; disdain

I'M SORRY FOR PASSING
JUDGMENT INSTEAD OF EXTENDING LOVE.

“Why do you judge your brother or sister?
Why do you look down on your brother or sister?
We will all stand in front of the judgment seat of God.”

–Romans 14:10

SO WE, BEING MANY,
ARE ONE BODY
IN CHRIST,
AND INDIVIDUALLY
MEMBERS OF ONE ANOTHER.

ROMANS 12:5

Stop judging each other. Instead, this is what you should decide: never put a stumbling block or obstacle in the way of your brother or sister.

–Romans 14:13

Each of us will give a personal account to God.

Reflecting God's Love In Our RELATIONSHIPS

God's kingdom isn't about eating food and drinking but about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. Whoever serves Christ this way pleases God and gets human approval.

So let's strive for things that bring peace and things that build each other up.

-Romans 14:17-19
