

2017 10 29 Scripture Reading

Now I'm going to Jerusalem, to serve God's people. Macedonia and Achaia have been happy to make a contribution for the poor among God's people in Jerusalem. They were happy to do this, and they are actually in debt to God's people in Jerusalem.

If the Gentiles got a share of the Jewish people's spiritual resources, they ought to minister to them with material resources. So then, after I have finished this job and have safely delivered the final amount of the Gentiles' offering to them, I will leave for Spain, visiting you on the way. I know when I come to you I will come with the fullest blessing of Christ.

Brothers and sisters, I urge you, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, join me in my struggles, in your prayers to God for me. Pray I will be rescued from the people in Judea who don't believe. Also, pray my service for Jerusalem will be acceptable to God's people there, so I can come to you with joy by God's will and be re-energized with your company. May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Romans 15:25-33