Because I've heard you are loyal and faithful to Jesus the Master, and you show love to all God's people, I never stop giving thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray the God of King Jesus our Lord, the Father of glory, would give you—in your spirit—the gift of being wise, of seeing things people can't normally see, because you are coming to know Him and have the eyes of your inmost self opened to God's light.

Then you will know exactly what the hope is that goes with God's call. You will know the wealth of the glory of His inheritance in His holy people. And you will know the outstanding greatness of His power towards us who are loyal to Him in faith, according to the working of His strength and power.

This was the power at work in the King when God raised Him from the dead and sat Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, above all rule and authority and power and lordship, and above every name that is invoked, both in the present age and also in the age to come. Yes; God has 'put all things under His feet', and has given Him to the church as the head over all. The church is His Body; it is the fullness of the One Who fills all in all. Ephesians 1:15-23
