Resurrection Day

1 Corinthians 15:1-11, Mark 16:1-8 - No Longer Dead

The resurrection story reveals who we are and Whose we are. Resurrection life is not only Jesus' Story, it is our story as well, if it takes root in our lives and gets the 'run of the place'. This is no ordinary life. It's the stuff of miracles and divine moments, possibilities and purpose—all packed into our regular everyday lives. Jesus rose from the grave. He conquered death for all time. His resurrection life saves us, as we continue to believe, and trust His life to transform all of the "dead places" in us.

Where are the "dead places" in your life and family?

What situations are impossible and beyond help?

Would you risk laying those people and situations before the LORD and invite His power to bring light and life to each one?

Jesus is Risen! May we allow His power and presence to transform the darkest, hardest, and most sullen places and have faith enough to believe—He is risen INDEED!

Christianity, you see, isn't a set of ideas. It isn't a path of spirituality. It isn't a rule of life. It isn't a political agenda. It includes, and indeed gives energy to, all those things; but at its very heart it is something different. It is good news about an event which has happened in the world, an event because of which the world can never be the same again. And those who believe it, and live by it, will (thank God!) never be the same again either. That's what 1 Corinthians 15 is all about (N.T. Wright, 2004).

Next week: 1 John 1:1-2:2

Resurrection Day

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THIS WEEK:

Today: Psalm 23 (What is God saying to you?)

Monday: John 12:1-11

Tuesday: Ezekiel 37:1-14

Wednesday: John 13:21-38

Thursday: Mark 14:12-26

Friday: John 18-19

Saturday: John 21:1-14

Oh LORD, You summon us to life in the midst of death,
peace in the midst of violence, praise in the midst of despair. Filled once again with Your unruly Spirit, may we answer Your summons and be part of the movement of life. In Jesus' Name, Amen
