

1 Timothy 6:6-11

Chesterton said: “Children are grateful when Santa Claus puts in their stockings gifts of toys or sweets. Could I not be grateful to Santa when he put in my stockings the gift of two miraculous legs (S. Tugwell, 1975)?

Never before in history has there been such a restless pursuit of riches, by more and more highly developed means. Never before have so many people tripped over one another in their eagerness to get rich and thereby impaled themselves on the consequences of their own greed (N.T. Wright, 2003).

Nelson Rockefeller—one of the richest men of his day—is reputed to have summed it up. When asked by a reporter how much money he reckoned he needed to live on comfortably, he replied, ‘A little more than I get now’.

Why are some wealthy people dissatisfied with their lives when some relatively poor people are deeply satisfied?

What is the difference between contentment and lack of ambition? How can each attribute affect the body of Christ?

How do we distinguish between what we need vs. what we want? How do we avoid comparing situations with others?

Next week: Luke 16:1-15, 2 Corinthians 9:6-14

1 Timothy 6:6-11

Chesterton said: “Children are grateful when Santa Claus puts in their stockings gifts of toys or sweets. Could I not be grateful to Santa when he put in my stockings the gift of two miraculous legs (S. Tugwell, 1975)?

Never before in history has there been such a restless pursuit of riches, by more and more highly developed means. Never before have so many people tripped over one another in their eagerness to get rich and thereby impaled themselves on the consequences of their own greed (N.T. Wright, 2003).

Nelson Rockefeller—one of the richest men of his day—is reputed to have summed it up. When asked by a reporter how much money he reckoned he needed to live on comfortably, he replied, ‘A little more than I get now’.

Why are some wealthy people dissatisfied with their lives when some relatively poor people are deeply satisfied?

What is the difference between contentment and lack of ambition? How can each attribute affect the body of Christ?

How do we distinguish between what we need vs. what we want? How do we avoid comparing situations with others?

Next week: Luke 16:1-15, 2 Corinthians 9:6-14

September 16, 2018

Faithful Stewards

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THIS WEEK:

Today: Psalm 141 (What is God saying to you?)

Monday: John 5:1-15

Tuesday: John 8:1-11

Wednesday: Psalm 25

Thursday: Ephesians 2

Friday: Romans 6:1-14

Saturday: Romans 3:21-31

Almighty God, in Whom I find life, health, and strength, and through Whose mercy I am clothed and fed; grant to me a thankful and faithful heart. In the powerful Name of our Savior Jesus, and by His Spirit I pray, Amen.

September 16, 2018

Faithful Stewards

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR THIS WEEK:

Today: Psalm 141 (What is God saying to you?)

Monday: John 5:1-15

Tuesday: John 8:1-11

Wednesday: Psalm 25

Thursday: Ephesians 2

Friday: Romans 6:1-14

Saturday: Romans 3:21-31

Almighty God, in Whom I find life, health, and strength, and through Whose mercy I am clothed and fed; grant to me a thankful and faithful heart. In the powerful Name of our Savior Jesus, and by His Spirit I pray, Amen.