Wait—There's More

Hebrews 10:19-25, 32-39

Oh the blessedness of a life lived in the holy place! Here the Father's face is seen and His love is tasted. Here His holiness is revealed and the soul is made ready to partake of it. Here, the sacrifice of love, worship, and adoration, the incense of prayer and supplication, is offered in power. Here the outpouring of the Spirit is known as an ever-streaming, over-flowing river, from under the throne of God and the Lamb. Here, the soul—in God's presence—grows into more complete oneness with Christ, and more entire conformity to His likeness. Here—in union with Jesus—in His unceasing intercession, we are emboldened to take our place as intercessors, who can have power with God and prevail. Here, the soul mounts up as on eagle's wings, the strength is renewed, and the blessing, the power, and the love are imparted with which God's people (His priests) can go out to bless a dying world. Here each day we may experience the fresh anointing—in virtue of which we can go out to be the bearers, witnesses, and channels of God's salvation to women and men—the living instruments through whom our blessed King works out His full and final triumph” (A. Murray, Holiest of Holies, 1895).

Emmanuel, God with us. Christ came to bring God near.

How will I bring God to others?

Where will I go? For whom will I pray?

How can I make room for Christ, and bear His light in the world?

Draw near. Hold on. Consider each other. Meet together.

Encourage each other. Stand your ground. Become partners.

Show sympathy. Endure. Live by faith. Receive God's promises.

Next week: Hebrews 11:1, 12:1-3
