

Hebrews 11:1; 12:1-3

“Before and after Hebrews 11, there are many “let us” phrases. The faith chapter is surrounded by a collective call to the Community of Faith—Christ’s Body—like a “faith salad”!

Let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings ... Hebrews 10:22

Let us hold unwaveringly to the hope we profess, for He Who promised is faithful. Hebrews 10:23

Let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds... Hebrews 10:24

Let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles; let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us... Hebrews 12:1

Let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe... Hebrews 12:28” (H Friberg, 2018).

Keep your eyes, or at least your imagination fixed on the finishing line and on the One Who is at the center of the cloud of witnesses, waiting there to greet you Himself. Jesus ran this course before us... Our task is to follow in His steps. His encouragement, and the thought of His welcome at the end, are the central motivation for us to continue in hope, faith, and patience” (N.T. Wright, 2004).

- Who are the great witnesses to faith in my life?
- What contributions are they making to my spiritual journey?
- Am I in that great cloud for someone’s spiritual life?
- What are the weights and sins that hinder me in my life?
- What attributes of Christ most appeal to you in this passage?

Next week: 1st Sunday of Advent, Luke 21:25-36
